

Kaisa Kautto-Koivula

Kaisa Kautto-Koivula is Managing Director of Mind Gardenia Ltd, a consulting company that is focusing to understand the big Challenges and Opportunities in ongoing Paradigm Shift of Future Work Life, Economy, Society - and the wellbeing of individuals as a part of this paradigm shift process. Before establishing (in 2004) her own company Kaisa Kautto-Koivula acted over 15 years in various managerial positions in Nokia Corporation where her latest responsibility was the Foresight and the Development of Future Strategic Business Concepts and Innovations.

Kaisa Kautto-Koivula is well-known visionary and she has advised several high-level Organizations both in Finland and globally. She has been also invited a member of National Foresight Network and she has acted as senior advisor to Finnish Government on issues such as National Information Strategy, Government Foresight Reports, the Foresight of Future Work and the Future Wellbeing of Individuals.

Kaisa Kautto-Koivula holds Ph.D (Adult Professional Education) and Licenciata (Information Technology). She acts also as part-time Adjunct Professor both at Tampere University for Future elearning Environments and at Jyväskylä University for Future Human-Centric Knowledge Society, in Finland.

